AWOKEN

Preface

When I awoke, I realized it wasn't Democrat vs. Republican, it did not matter if I was a Catholic or Protestant. The fight is not really about white vs. black, Palestinian vs. Jewish. If I was gay or straight, a man or woman, the real fight was hidden from me. It is good vs. evil. From day one, there has always been a light vs. dark power in this world. All that has changed is the form that it takes.

I realized that most people care but are either paralyzed or apathetic. “What can I do?,” is replaced with “there is nothing I can do.” We have stood by and watched in silence while they have taken complete control of our natural resources, food, energy, health, security, how we worship, and even our very lives. The greatest generation in our country gave their lives fighting oppression, fascism, and communism in Europe, only for America to elect and openly embrace those very same evils and not even realize it.

Our favorite Vulcan from the 1970s warned us about being on the brink of a pending Ice Age. Although Mr. Nimoy wanted us to live long and prosper, his warnings were false. The Ice Age concept was destroyed in the 1980s by the smog crisis. New warnings were then issued, claiming that acid rain would kill all crops in ten years. According to scientists, the ozone layer would be destroyed in another ten years. Maybe because of the hair spray used by all 1980s hair bands? We were told to trust the experts and follow the science. In 2000, Al Gore predicted that the ice caps would melt in ten years, unlike Mr. Spock’s theory, which was the money shot. Global warming was born. As we became complacent about it, they started talking about meteors, aliens, Trump, and, of course, COVID!

Despite the raging climate crisis, former presidents, media moguls, liberal pop singers, hippie professors, and billionaires kept buying beachfront villas where the water never rose. Their blue-roofed estates were always safe. They have numerous fossil fuel-guzzling automobiles and yachts, and some even have aircraft.

We have been alive through The Warren Commission, The Watergate hearings, The 9/11 Commission, The Durham Report, and every other ostensibly governmental gathering formed to present the "truth" to America.

A lot of money is required to conquer the world. Washington, D.C.'s printing press is running at "full speed ahead." Perhaps the best stocks to buy in the future will be those in the paper and ink industries. There will no longer be a middle class; while "they" have been plotting and planning for decades, we have remained silent. I've been trying to tell this story for a very long time, and sadly, many people still choose to ignore the warnings. We have been programmed to believe only the narrative that is repeated on mainstream media and social media. We have been dumbed down and taught we cannot think for ourselves, even though we deny that fact.

There will be no more warnings before the destruction begins because “they” have the most powerful distraction on their side. They've got us. All they have to do is keep us arguing about when life begins, the definition of a woman, whether the Earth is flat, or did we land on the moon. “They” have always kept us, the peasants, fighting over social issues to conceal the man behind the curtain. It's cleverly staged, like the Wizard of Oz or a WWE cage match! Except the fools who used to entertain the kings, are now peasants under the king's control. So, the grand experiment has come to an end. You are merely a control group in a laboratory. They have complete control. If you disagree with the ruling class or those in positions of authority, you are a threat, but to whom? Since the Garden of Eden, there has been a battle between good and evil. From that point forward, until the day of Christ's second coming, this battle will take place every day. Man has always been the source of conflict, natural disasters, poverty, human division, displacement, disease, devastation, and death since God created this globe. Man has always referred to evil as "simply human nature." I'd like to believe that most people are generally good. However, there has always been a small minority that seeks to dominate and control everything. These dreadful relics, several of whom have served as world leaders, have all contributed to the debacle we now witness.

The Fed’s version of its One World currency model went live on July 4, 2023. It is in its infant stages, but it will soon grow. Someday a monument will be erected somewhere in Washington. A stone of remembrance for our great country. It simply says: America July 4, 1776, - July 4, 2023. It is finished. They have done it, but America remains asleep.

My dear reader, have you awakened yet?

The Lord is coming back for His church and the time will be soon. He does not want lukewarm religion, HE desires a relationship with every soul. This book is dedicated to all who will have a relationship with Christ before HE returns.

One day we will all be Awake and rejoicing.

"Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light." — Ephesians 5:14

"...And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed." — Romans 13:11

Have you awakened yet?

The Preface is only the beginning.
Awoken connects the headlines of our day to what Scripture says is coming.
